

The festive season in Italy is not over yet!

The 6th of January is a special event for children all over Italy.

This is to celebrate the arrival of the "Three wise men " and traditionally the stockings are filled by the "Befana", a witch that arrives on a broomstick and that originates from Pagan times.

---

If they have been good during the year, they get a lot of sweets, if they were naughty, they get coal, "sweet coal".

Find out more...

